CERTIFIED FOOD MANAGER GUIDELINES

Food establishments operating in Fairfax County (including the Cities of Fairfax and Falls Church) must be under the immediate control of a Certified Food Manager (CFM). However, an establishment defined as a “Limited Food Establishment” may operate under the control of a Limited Certified Food Manager (LCFM). A Limited Food Establishment is one that serves only hotdogs or frankfurter-type foods, pre-packaged foods, or foods that are not potentially hazardous.

Northern Virginia Certified Food Manager Cards (both CFM and LCFM cards) are issued by ORS Interactive, Inc. at the address listed below. Note: The Fairfax County Health Department DOES NOT issue CFM cards.

To obtain a Northern Virginia CFM or LCFM card you must go to ORS Interactive, Inc. You will need to show proof of passing one of the “Recognized Exams” listed below. If you have not yet taken an exam, you can do so at the ORS Interactive, Inc. office and receive your card the same day. Call ORS Interactive, Inc. for information about any applicable fees and taking an exam. A Northern Virginia Food Manager Card is valid in Fairfax County, Arlington County, and the City of Alexandria. CFM and LCFM cards must be renewed every five years based on successful completion of another exam at the time of renewal.
